I. Acknowledgments

Some of the text that follows comes from the original NCCFI invitation. For that, we are in debt to Dr. Kevin Jones from Chapman University. In addition, the Constitution and Bylaws incorporates portions of the NIET invitation as well as the NPDA Constitution. Thanks also to Dr. Renea Gernant from Concordia University for her suggestions.

II. Name and Purpose

- A. The organization shall be called the National Christian College Forensics Association (NCCFA).
- B. The goal of the NCCFA is to provide member schools of the CCCU and schools of similar beliefs the opportunity to gather once a year and celebrate our faith while we engage in an activity we all love.

III. Membership

- A. Membership shall be open to all schools who are full members of the Council of Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU), with a forensics program that competes at the national tournament during the current or preceding three years.
- B. Additionally, schools who support the one true Christian faith are allowed to participate. While not all historic church bodies subscribe to a creedal declaration of faith, the tenets of the Christian faith that schools are asked to support are as detailed by the Nicene creed below:

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
True God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

- C. Further, membership assumes that
 - 1. All schools in membership agree to encourage students to perform material and conduct themselves in an appropriately Christian manner.
 - 2. All schools in membership recognize the values and beliefs of the audiences of the NCCFI and perform material accordingly.
- D. Schools fitting the criteria outlined above can be members of the NCCFA without charge. In order to actually attend the tournament, a team fee may be assessed that will defray tournament expenses.
- E. Members will be kept updated on the tournament and the association through listserv(s), the website, and/or other appropriate means of communication.

IV. Officers and Duties

- A. Positions
 - 1. The officers of the NCCFA shall include: President, Tournament Director, At-Large Representatives, the Webmaster, and the Secretary/Treasurer.
 - 2. The Webmaster may hold another position within the organization.
- B. Elections for officers shall take place during the annual business meeting (see Article V).

- C. If an officer is no longer able to fulfill their duties (such as moving to a non-NCCFA school), and this happens before the next national tournament, then a special election may be called. If called for by the office, such an election may be limited to a particular constituency (such as schools in a given region).

The following are the committees of the NCCFA:

A. Executive Council

1. The Executive Council consists of the President, Tournament Director, the At-Large Representatives, and the Secretary/Treasurer.

VIII. Management of Assets

- A. The NCCFA shall be incorporated.
- B. The National Christian College Forensics Association is organized exclusively for educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- C. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in the furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)2 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Any such asset not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Bylaws:

Bylaw 1: Tournament Events

- A. The tournament shall offer individual events, Readers' Theater, Lincoln-Douglas debate, and parliamentary debate.
- B. The following event descriptions shall be used. If AFA (for IE's), NFA (for LD), or PRP (for RT) changes event descriptions after the business meeting, the tournament director may include any revised descriptions as part of the tournament invitation without having to propose a bylaw change. The bylaw will then be changed appropriately, and schools shall be given notice of the change in the tournament invitation.
 1. Impromptu Speaking: Impromptu Speaking: An impromptu speech, serious in nature, with topic selections varied by round. In the spirit of the tournament, however, the topic committee will develop quotations which may consist of Psalms or Proverbs, quotations from famous religious figures (i.e. Martin Luther, Mother Theresa, Billy Graham, etc.), or regular quotations. Speakers will have a total of 7 minutes for both preparation and speaking. Timing commences with the acceptance of the topics sheet. Limited notes are permitted.
 2. Extemporaneous Speaking: Contestants will be given three topics in the general area of current events, choose one, and have 30 minutes to prepare a speech that is the original work of the student. Questions will be mixed with at least one question per round being value, religious, or moral oriented. The topic committee will generate questions from a variety of sources. Maximum time limit for the speech is 7 minutes. Limited notes are permitted. Students will speak in listed order. Posting of topics will be staggered.
 3. Informative Speaking: An original, factual speech by the student on a realistic subject to fulfill the general aim to inform the audience. Audio-visual aids may or may not be used to supplement and reinforce the message. Multiple sources should be used and cited in the development of the speech. Minimal notes are permitted. Maximum time is 10 minutes including introduction.
 4. Persuasive Speaking: An original speech by the student designed to inspire, reinforce or change the beliefs, attitudes, values or actions of the audience. Audio-visual aids may or may not be used to supplement and reinforce the message. Multiple sources should be used and cited in the development of the speech. Minimal notes are permitted. Maximum time limit is 10 minutes.

5. After Dinner Speaking: An original, humorous speech by the student, designed to exhibit sound speech composition, thematic coherence, direct communicative public speaking skills, and good taste. The speech should not resemble a night club act, an impersonation, or comic dialogue. Audio-visual aids may or may not be used to supplement and reinforce the message. Minimal notes are permitted. Maximum time limit is 10 minutes.
6. Communication Analysis: An original speech by the student designed to offer an explanation and/or evaluation of a communication event such as a speech, speaker, movement, poem, poster, film, campaign, etc., through the use of rhetorical principles. Audio-visual aids may or may not be used to supplement and reinforce the message. Manuscripts are permitted. Maximum time limit is 10 minutes.
7. Prose Interpretation: A selection or selections of prose material of literary merit, which may be drawn from more than one source. Play cuttings and poetry are prohibited. Use of manuscript is required. Maximum time is 10 minutes including introduction.
8. Poetry Interpretation: A selection or selections of poetry of literary merit, which may be drawn from more than one source. Play cuttings and prose works are prohibited. Use of manuscript is required. Maximum time limit is 10 minutes including introduction.
9. Dramatic Interpretation: A cutting that represents one or more characters from a play or plays of literary merit. This material may be drawn from stage, screen or radio. Use of manuscript is required. Maximum time limit is 10 minutes including introduction.
10. Program Oral Interpretation: A program of thematically-linked selections of literary merit, chosen from two or three recognized genres of competitive interpretation (prose/poetry/drama). A substantial portion of the total time must be devoted to each of the genres used in the program. Different genre means the material must appear in separate pieces of literature (e.g., A poem included in a short story that appears only in that short story does not constitute a poetry genre). Only one selection may be original. Use of manuscript is required. Maximum time limit is 10 minutes including original introduction and/or transitions.
11. Duo Interpretation: A cutting from a play or plays, humorous or serious, involving the portrayal of two or more characters presented by two individuals. This material may be drawn from stage, screen or radio. This is not an acting event; thus, no costumes, props, lighting, etc., are to be used. Presentation is from the manuscript and the focus should be off-stage and not to each other. Maximum time limit is 10 minutes including introduction.

12. Performance of Faith Literature: 8-10 minute time limit. A selection or selections of interpretation material emphasizing faith issues. Content could reflect a variety of faith perspectives. This may be a single selection or may be developed from more than one source in any genre. Solo performances only, no Duos permitted. Presentation should follow traditional guidelines for an interpretation presentation including an introduction which establishes the theme and tone of the piece. The use of a manuscript is required.
13. Readers' Theater: A group performance of literature, involving more than two performers with a single or compiled program on a discernible theme or concept. Scripts must be perceived, but not necessarily referenced at all times. Props, set pieces, music, singing and other theatrical accoutrements must be perceived as enhancing rather than substituting for the performance options. 25 minute time limit includes set up and take down of set and audience reaction.
14. Lincoln-Douglas Debate: The current NFA-LD rules as published at <http://www.nationalforensics.org/nfa-ld.html> will be utilized.
15. Experimental events may be proposed by any member of the membership. Such events would be voted on for the following year.

Bylaw 2: Definitions of Open/Novice

- A. For purposes of defining a "year" of competition, the tournament shall use the American Forensic Association definition: if a competitor has attended three tournaments in a semester, she or he has used one semester of eligibility.
- B. If a competitor has used two semesters of eligibility, she or he shall be an open competitor in individual events.
- C. Contestants are limited to four national tournament years.
 1. A national tournament year is one in which a student competes in a national tournament sponsored by any national forensic organization including but not limited to: AFA-NIET, NFA-IE Nationals, Novice IE Nationals, NDT, CEDA, NEDA, Phi Rho Pi, Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha, Pi Kappa Delta, Interstate Oratory, APDA, and any other nationally recognized organizations and tournaments that may be added to this list.
 2. The number of national tournament years in which a student has competed supersedes the number of semesters in which he or she has competed. Thus, if a student does not compete in the Fall or attends only a limited number of tournaments, he or she has still used a tournament year of eligibility if he or she attends any national tournament in the Spring.

3. The intent of this standard is to exclude students from competing in national tournaments for more than four years. During their four national tournament years, students may attend as many national tournaments as they wish or as their programs' budgets allow, but they may not compete in four AFA-NIET nationals or four CEDA nationals, for example, and then move on to compete in four NCCFI Championship Tournaments over the course of several more years.

- D. The rules of Bylaw 2B would allow a student who is open in individual events to remain novice in debate based on the definition of competition year defined in bylaw 2A. However, if a student becomes eligible for open competition in either LD or parli, then that student will be considered as open for the other debate event.

Bylaw 3: Individual Sweepstakes

- A. The tournament shall offer individual sweepstakes trophies to individual events competitors.
- B. Students will be eligible for individual sweepstakes based on the following definitions:
1. Novice competitors will be eligible for individual sweepstakes if they are entered in three events.
 2. Open competitors will be eligible for individual sweepstakes if they are entered in four events.
 3. When calculating individual sweepstakes, the top 3 or 4 events (depending on whether the student is novice or open) will count.
 4. Parliamentary debate does not count toward individual sweepstakes. Lincoln-Douglas does count as a platform event. Readers' Theater (with points halved) counts as an interpretation event.
 5. In order to be eligible for individual sweepstakes, a student must be entered in a minimum of one platform event (Extemp, Impromptu, Informative, Persuasion, After Dinner, Communication Analysis, or Lincoln-Douglas Debate) and a minimum of one interpretation event (Prose, Poetry, Oral Interp, Dramatic Interp, Faith Lit, Duo, or Readers' Theater).

Bylaw 4: Expectations of Judges

- A. Judges in the open division must have a bachelor's degree.
- B. Judges in the novice division should have a bachelor's degree. Judges who do not have a bachelor's degree should no longer have any competitive eligibility, and should have had previous competitive experience.
- C. Any exceptions to Bylaw 4A and 4B must be approved by both the President and the Tournament Director, and should only be used in the case of exigency.
- D. All judges are expected to uphold the philosophy of the tournament.

Bylaw 5: Calculation of Sweepstakes Points

Sweepstakes points will be accrued by both novice and open speakers in the following manner:

- A. Debate
 - 1. 3 points will be earned for every preliminary round win for each debate team. Byes will be counted as wins for purposes of points.
 - 2. Preliminary round points may be earned for as many as 4 teams in each division.
 - 3. Elimination round points may be earned for all teams from a school in each division.
 - 4. Elimination round points will be earned on the following basis: 20 for 1st, 15 for 2nd, 9 for semis, 6 for quarters, and 3 for octas.
- B. Individual Events
 - 1. Preliminary round points will be earned on the following scale: 1st place in a round earns 3 points, 2nd place in a round earns 2 points, 3rd place in a round earns 1 point.
 - 2. Preliminary round points may be earned for as many as 4 students per school per division.
 - 3. Elimination round points may be earned for all students per school per division.
 - 4. Elimination round points will be earned on the following basis:
 - 1st - 12 points
 - 2nd - 10 points
 - 3rd - 8 points
 - 4th - 6 points
 - 5th - 5 points
 - 6th - 4 points
 - Semifinals - 2 points

C. Readers' Theater

1. 3 points will be earned for each preliminary round win. Byes will be counted as wins for purposes of points.
2. Preliminary round points may be earned for as many as 4 RT's from a school.
3. Elimination round points may be earned for all RT's from a school.
4. Elimination round points will be earned on the following basis: 24 for 1st, 20 for 2nd, 16 for semis.

Bylaw 6: Tournament Awards

The NCCFI tournament will offer tournament awards in the following categories:

A. Debate Team

1. The tournament will offer three team trophies in each of two divisions of debate: large entry and small entry.
2. The breakdown between divisions shall be such that a minimum of 40% of the entries fall into each division, unless a "natural break" occurs that would modify the 40% rule. The breakdown will be based on the number of entries at the time registration closes or the time the tournament starts, whichever is higher.
3. The guiding principle behind this rule is that a team that brings a few debaters that do both LD and parliamentary debate will likely be a small entry; as paraphrased, 'If your teams fit in a minivan, they are likely in the small entry division.'
4. For purposes of entries, LD and parli both count as 1 entry each.
5. Open and novice points shall count equally toward debate team trophies.

B. Individual Events Team

1. The tournament will offer three team trophies in each of three divisions of individual events: large entry, medium-size entry, and small entry.
2. The breakdown between divisions shall be guided by natural breaks. The intent is to have approximately 1/3 of the teams in each of the divisions. The breakdown will be based on the number of entries at the time registration closes or the time the tournament starts, whichever is higher.
3. For purposes of entries, RT will count toward IE sweepstakes at the rate of 1 RT = 2 IE entries.
4. Open and novice points shall count equally toward individual events team trophies.

C. Team Quality Awards

1. The tournament will offer one quality award trophy. This trophy is designed to award the team that has the greatest success per entry.
2. As mentioned in Bylaw 6, B3, RT will count as 2 entries for purposes of quality awards.
3. Open and novice points shall count equally toward the quality award.

D. Overall Team

1. The tournament will offer five trophies to the top overall schools.
2. In order to be eligible, a school must enter individual events and debate. RT is considered an individual event.
3. Open and novice events both count toward the overall trophy.
4. The overall team award shall be determined as follows:
 - a. Figure the percentage of all possible points a team earns in IE
 - b. Figure the percentage of all possible points a team earns in Debate
 - c. Add the two percentages together (to two significant digits)
5. Example: Assume there are 1000 possible IE points, and 800 debate points. A school earns 100 IE sweeps points, and 96 debate sweeps points. Their score would be $10\% (100/1000) + 12\% (96/800) = 22$.
6. If there is a tie, the tie will be broken as follows:
 - a. Number of 1's in all events
 - b. Number of 2's in all events
 - c. Total number of breaks

G. Individual Events

1. The tournament will offer trophies to all students reaching elimination rounds in both open and novice division in all individual events.
2. The tournament will also offer trophies to all Readers' Theaters advancing to elimination rounds.
3. The tournament will offer individual sweepstakes awards to the top 10 novice and open contestants as highlighted in bylaw 3.

H. Parliamentary Debate

1. The tournament shall offer speaker awards to students in each division of parliamentary debate that is offered.
2. Unless entries dictate otherwise, the tournament shall offer 10 speaker awards in open division and 5 speaker awards in junior varsity and novice divisions.
3. Trophies shall be awarded to all teams that advance to elimination rounds.
4. If entries dictate that more or less trophies should be awarded, the tournament director, in conjunction with the president, shall determine the exact number of trophies to be awarded in each division.

I. Lincoln-Douglas Debate

1. The tournament shall offer speaker awards to students in each division of Lincoln-Douglas debate that is offered.
2. Unless entries dictate otherwise, the tournament shall offer 5 speaker awards in open division and 3 speaker awards in the novice division.
3. Trophies shall be awarded to all debaters that advance to elimination rounds
4. If entries dictate that more or less trophies should be awarded, the tournament director, in conjunction with the president, shall determine the exact number of trophies to be awarded in each division.
